Announces for County Attorney.

In today's Clinix will be found the formal announcement of Judge J. J. Greenleaf for county Attorney of Madison county, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Judge Greenleaf is well and favorably known to every voter in Richmond and has also a wide and pleasant acquaintance in every section of Madison county. He comes from a Democratic family, his father, Mr. J. E. Greenleaf, cashier Southern National Bank, this city, being one of our most widely known and progressive citizens. Judge Greenleaf made his advent into politics six years ago, at which time he was nominated by the Democratic party in a position to fill the vacant office of county Attorney. He has since that time been a most efficient and successful official. He is a graduate of the University of Virginia Law school, class of 1902, and his eminent ability as a lawyer leaves no doubt as to his qualifications to faithfully and legally discharge every duty connected with the office of county Attorney. He solicits and will appreciate the support and influence of every Democrat in Madison county.

Good News From Chenault Willis.

Our readers last week were made acquainted with the serious condition of Chenault Willis' eyes. He is in Cincinnati under the care of Dr. Sadtler. The operation of removing his right eye in the faint hope of saving his left one was to have been performed on Friday of last week. On Wednesday, however, Dr. Sadtler decided that it must be done at once and operated that day. Mr. Willis' faithful wife, who had been at his bedside from the first, was present on Thursday. Since the operation, he has improved beyond the hopes of his friends, and his physician now says there is scarcely any doubt but that he will recover entirely and have perfect vision with the left eye. His many relatives and friends will rejoice to know this.

Champ Clark at Lexington.

Hon. Champ Clark, speaker of the House of Representatives and prominently mentioned as Democratic candidate for President of the United States, has been invited by the State University to deliver an address in Lexington. He has accepted and Oct. 7, fired as the date. Mr. Clark is a fine speaker, and is a man of vast varied attainments and his address will be well worth hearing. His subject has not been announced yet but will be one of his great Chautauqua addresses and not along political lines.

Croup Proves Fatal.

Thomas Hopper, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hopper, died Saturday at his home on Bybee Row, after a protracted illness of bronchitis. Interment took place Sunday in Richmond cemetery.

Merry Go Round.

Will Move to Texas.

It is with much regret that we note that Hon. G. E. Lilly and family will shortly remove to Texas to live, temporarily at least. Both Mr. and Mrs. Lilly have been in poor health for some time and they have reluctantly decided to leave Richmond and seek a different climate. They have decided to go to San Antonio, Texas. Mrs. Lilly and the children will go at once in order that the children may enter school at the beginning of the fall term and Mr. Lilly will follow as soon as he can arrange his business. The best wishes of the Clinix and of our entire community go with them, a hope too that they may both regain their health in the Lone Star State and again return and make their home with us.

Death Removes One of Richmond's Most Beloved Men

Mr. J. W. Zaring, Johns Silent Majority.

No death of recent years has caused such widespread sorrow as that of Mr. James W. Zaring, which occurred last Friday morning at 10 o'clock, at his residence on Lancaster avenue, after a brief illness of heart trouble. Six years ago Mr. Zaring was stricken with a serious attack of typhoid fever, which disease left his heart in a weakened condition and while a sufferer at all times, his death came as a shock to his family and friends. Deceased was sixty-six years old and was a native of Shelby county, but had made Richmond his home for twenty years. During this period he had gained a strong hold on the affections of our people. In his home, private, religious and fraternal circles he was ever the same quiet, unassuming gentleman, admired by old and young alike for his high sense of character. His every day life, as he moved in and out among his fellowmen always the same, and acted as a sweet benediction to all who came in contact with him. Mr. Zaring was the head of the well known firm of J. W. Zaring Grain & Mill Co., which industry, under his careful direction, has grown to enormous proportions. He was a loyal member of Richmond Commandery Knights Templar.

A lot of stock was sold at the same time and brought good prices. Lone Tom Chenault conducted the sale.

Madison Fair A Success.

From every standpoint the forty-fifth annual exhibition of the Madison County Fair Association was a success. The attendance was good and the class of stock exhibited was equal to that of any fair held in Central Kentucky this season. A fair feature, which has not been considered by the fair association for many years, was the poultry show and the idea of recognizing this valuable asset of the farm was not amiss, as the display at the fair last week proved to be one of the most interesting of many attractions on exhibition. It was with reluctance that many of the directors were induced to undertake the task of organizing a fair company, as the season was so far advanced and many thought it would be folly to attempt to push to a successful termination a fair gotten up on such short notice. A fair, however, was a success. Good premiums were paid, good attendance had, and everybody who were so fortunate as to be present spoke in highest terms of those who had charge of the management of the meeting. Especially is great credit due to the President, D. A. McCord, and the Secretary, J. L. Crutcher, for their untiring labor as on their shoulders rested the responsibility of the success or failure of the meeting.

Merry Go Round.

The Price-Jackson Co., who afforded so much amusement at the Fair last week with their merry-go-round, and Ragin Swing, have decided to remain in Richmond another week. See them at the Fair grounds.

He's Popular.

The Cynthia Democrat in speaking of the Teacher's Institute of Harrison county held there last week says: "The Harrison County Teacher's Institute held its annual session of five days at the city school, beginning on Monday, Aug. 21st, 1911. There was an enrollment of 72 teachers, 20 of whom are engaged in teaching in the public schools of the county. Everyone assigned topics responded readily when called upon, and some excellent papers were read and many helpful talks were made by teachers and others. Prof. E. C. McDougle of Richmond Normal School instructed the institute in an able and satisfactory manner, and the teachers were unanimous in declaring it the best institute ever held in Harrison county, and requested the Superintendent to secure the services of Prof. McDougle for the 1912 Institute. This was done before the instructor left town, as we found that all his time for next year had been taken but two weeks, so he will be with us in 1912."

Called Meeting of Federated Clubs.

Mrs. Rhos. Jefferson Smith, President of the State Federation of Clubs, called a meeting of the Federated clubs of this city to meet at the Elk's hall on Wednesday afternoon of last week. The object of the meeting was to consider the entertaining of the Federated officers of the State. Miss Della Bennett was made chairman, and Miss Julia Zaring, of this city, was elected secretary. The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. H. B. Frazer. On the following day the guests will be taken in automobiles to Berea, where they will be entertained by Mrs. Dep. more, who is one of the State officers, where was little to do in the way of dining of the various committees, these having been selected in advance by Mrs. Smith, the State President, and Mrs. Banks, the State Secretary.
